Summary

I am Kanailal Manna, a passionate Full Stack Developer with a knack for creating innovative solutions. As a SDE-I at Datachecks, I leverage my skills in the MERN and NEXT stacks to develop and optimize software systems.

Highlights of my journey include:

- Full Stack Proficiency : Developed end-to-end solutions using MERN and NEXT technologies during internships and open-source contributions.
- Continuous Learning : Completed a virtual experience program with Walmart Global Tech, enhancing my expertise in scalable engineering practices.
- Open Source Commitment : Contributed to Neutralinojs, Active participant in Hacktoberfest, contributing to global projects and fostering collaborative coding.
- AI & Web3 Exploration : Passionately integrating emerging technologies into my work.

I'm keen to connect with professionals who share a zeal for technology and innovation. Let's network and explore potential collaborations that can lead to groundbreaking advancements in the tech industry. Feel free to reach out to me at kanailalmanna2003@gmail.com or connect via my LinkedIn profile.
